Monthly Fund Manager's comment

Global equity markets posted a positive performance in January (MSCI World c. +3.5%), with the European market (STOXX 600 c.+6.3%) overperforming the US market (S&P 500 c.+2.7%). From a sector perspective, Consumer Products (+10.8%), Financial Services (+9.7%) and Banks (+9.5%) recorded the best relative performance, while Food&Beverages (+0.8%), Utilities (+1.4%) and Travel&Leisure (+2.7%) underperformed the market. The stock market has been resilient in January and finished a bumpy month broadly higher despite escalating trade disputes, an uncertain path of interest rates and the DeepSeek AI shock. We started the year with fears about rising yields due to the inflationary effects of Trump's proposed policy. However, the most important newsflow for financial markets was DeepSeek, a new Chinese alternative to ChatGPT that requires less computing power, which wiped out c. $1tr in market cap from the US tech sector, in particular from the AI hardware supply chain. Finally, speculation on an imminent Russia-Ukraine ceasefire caused a rally in those sectors that could benefit the most in Europe (e.g. chemicals, airlines, materials).

Anima Selezione Europa had an absolute performance of +6.4% vs benchmark return of +6.1% (+0.29% active return). Both Sector Allocation and Stock Picking contributed positively. In particular, positive contribution came from Industrials (OW in Iveco, Leonardo, Kion), Technology (OW in Temenos), Consumer Staples (UW in Diageo), while negative contribution came from Healthcare (OW in UCB), Telecommunication (OW in WPP) and Energy (UW in Totalenergie).

During the month, we kept the level of equity investment to neutral. From a sector allocation perspective, we increased the exposure to banks and reduced the long position in insurance and diversified financials; we reduced the underweight in consumer staples and we reduced the overweight in consumer discretionary; we maintained the long position in basic materials and the underweight in utilities.

We believe that the positive momentum in the stock market will continue also in the first half of 2025. We think it will be led by the US market, as the Republican sweep will give Donald Trump more scope to implement his agenda. We believe that the European market, despite the risk of higher tariffs and the political turmoil in Germany and France, provide a good risk/reward on the back of multiple catalysts: the ECB delivers on rate cuts, the elections in Germany could result in the easing of the fiscal debt brake, higher chances of peace-talks between Russia and Ukraine, and an higher than expected fiscal stimulus in China. In the short term, we expect that the stock market will remain volatile on the back of Trump's new tariffs announcements and on the back of elections' outcome in Germany.
